

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TWO PATIENTS WIN GIFT BASKETS FROM NORTH MEDICAL, P.C.

SYRACUSE, N.Y.—December 10, 2009—This year, North Medical, P.C. (NMPC) delivered a bit of good cheer before the holidays. Two patients won gift baskets after a drawing in honor of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

NMPC held the gift basket raffle to encourage patients to schedule their mammograms. During the month of October, every patient who made an appointment for a future mammogram was entered into the raffle. More than 4,111 patients scheduled mammograms in October.

Katheryn Hensberry of Camillus, an eight-year survivor of breast cancer, was presented with her gift basket at North Medical, P.C. in Fayetteville. Angie Desantis of Syracuse, a lung cancer survivor, was presented with her gift basket at North Medical, P.C. in Liverpool.

Items in the gift baskets were generously donated by: The Rosamond Gifford Zoo, Coughlin's Boutique, A Stitcher's Garden, Lemons & Limes, Chloe's Closet, Commercial Art Supply, Jan's Addiction and Creative Flower & Gift Shop.

About North Medical, P.C.

North Medical, P.C. is the largest private medical practice in Central New York, bringing sophisticated ambulatory healthcare to patients' neighborhoods and communities through a single facility. A multi-dimensional health practice, its two state-of-the-art locations in Liverpool and Fayetteville are staffed by some of the area's highest credentialed professionals.

In the photos:

Megan Howles (left), tech aid, presents Katheryn Hensberry (right) with her gift basket.

(From left to right) Johanna Marks, Kirin Marks and Amanda Wiedenbeck present Angie Desantis with her gift basket.