MARIA CZERWINSKI, M.D., FACOG JOINS THE WOMEN'S PLACE

Syracuse, NY, July 20, 2011 -- North Medical is pleased to announce that Maria Czerwinski M.D. joined The Women's Place located in Liverpool. Dr. Maria Czerwinski applies more than 18 years of experience in women's comprehensive gynecological healthcare and women's wellness. As a Fellow of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, Dr. Czerwinski is dedicated to patient well-being and is knowledgeable of women's overall health and unique needs.

Prior to joining The Women's Place, Dr. Czerwinski served as the Medical Director, as well as an Assistant Professor for the Women's Health Services of Obstetrics and Gynecology at SUNY Upstate Medical University. For over 13 years at this location, Dr. Czerwinski had many tasks including managing the UHCC Ambulatory Obstetrics and Gynecologic Services, overseeing ambulatory quality assurance, as well as teaching and supervising twenty residents. Previous to this position, Dr. Czerwinski served as an Assistant Professor for primary care, obstetrics and gynecology at Loyola University Medical Center in Chicago, Illinois.

Dr. Czerwinski received her medical degree in 1990 from The Pennsylvania State University Milton S. Hershey Medical Center and completed her residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University of Buffalo Medical and Dental Consortium in 1994.

Dr. Czerwinski enjoys providing care to women along the entire continuum from adolescents to maturity. She has special interest in uterine fibroids and postmenopausal healthcare. She also enjoys golfing, downhill skiing, camping and spending time with her two children. Her skills and understanding of women's health allows residents of Central New York to receive the innovative primary care they desire. Dr. Czerwinski creates a comfortable and relaxed setting where routine gynecological and preventative healthcare can be addressed.
